(1) Membership Dues

$ _____

Dues for any individual, library, business or non-profit association/organization joining after annual conference are half of the designated annual dues.

All memberships include one copy of LLA's publication Louisiana Libraries.

The Louisiana Library Association (LLA) is a nonprofit organization recognized as exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code. The LLA has concluded that Individual (non-business) membership dues payments are deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Contributions or gifts to LLA for which no goods or services are received are deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

$25 of dues goes to members' cost of a subscription to Louisiana Libraries.
